

WHAT

The Tennessee Arts Education Data Project is the state's first-ever online searchable database on PK-12 student access to and participation in arts education. Presented in user-friendly, color-coded dashboards, information is searchable by district, school, grade level, and artistic discipline.

WHY

The Project empowers school districts, educators, policymakers, and funders with arts education data for decision-making in support of a well-rounded education. Measuring access to and participation in arts education helps create understanding and awareness and is a starting point for fostering arts education for all Tennessee children and youth.

EXAMINE THE DATA

- 1 What do you notice?
Identify facts from the dashboards.
- 2 What questions arise?
Are there areas of strength or challenges evident?
- 3 Can you draw any conclusions based on the data?
Consider the context in your school, district, community and statewide.
- 4 Establish a plan.
Identify opportunities that build on assets and address challenges. Check tnartseducationdatapoint.org for helpful tools and the grant opportunity listed on the back of this brochure to develop a plan and strengthen arts education in your community.
